

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

A cane, baggy pants, a little hat and big shoes ... who could that be?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever seen a silent film?
- What did you think of it?
- Would you watch it again?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe people I admire.
- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can describe the quality of an object or a person.

Let's Explore!

Sally blogs about "the little tramp". Who was he?

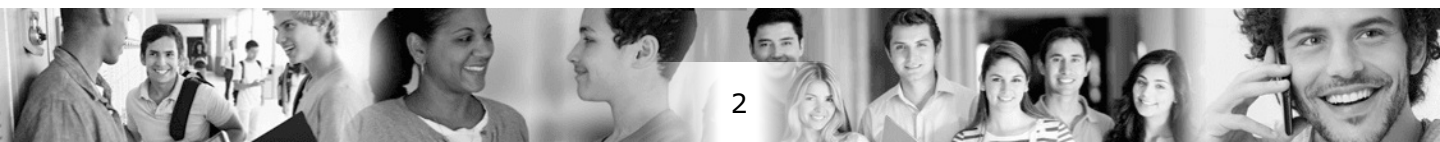

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

I have never seen a silent film, but I have heard of Charlie Chaplin. Many people say that Charlie Chaplin was the most creative person in movie history. In fact, he is considered to be one of the funniest men that has ever lived.

Charlie Chaplin was born in London on April 16, 1889. As a young boy, he played in music halls doing funny pantomimes. In 1910 he went to the US to tour and decided to stay there. He acted in his first silent movie in 1914 as the world-famous character, "the little tramp". Chaplin consistently appeared as the little tramp in more than seventy movies.

His costume was a little hat, tight coat, baggy pants, big shoes, and a cane. His humor and sensitivity made audiences all over the world love him. His character became the symbol of the little man whose life was full of problems. Have you heard of "the little tramp"?

Let's Practice!

Have you ever seen a silent movie*?

*A "silent" movie is one with no talking. There is usually music to listen to.

Instructions: Complete the phrase. Use the completed sentence(s) to model a conversation / to practice your pronunciation with your partner. Switch roles.

h a _ _ y _ _ h _ a _ d _ _ _ h _ l _ _ _ _ e _ _ a _ p

Let's Practice!

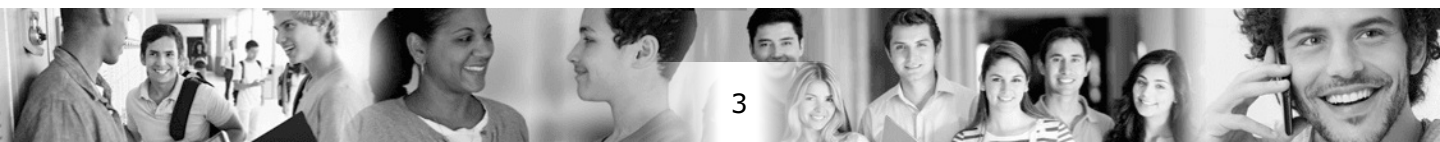

What do you know about Charlie Chaplin?

Instructions: Organize each mystery sentence. Write each word to place it in the correct order. Use the completed sentence(s) to model a conversation/to practice your pronunciation with your partner. Switch roles.

1. little / movies. / in / "the / than / Chaplin / consistently / appeared / seventy / more / as / tramp"

2. he / doing / pantomimes. / halls / funny / young / in / music / As / boy, / played / a

3. 1914 / "the / little / world-famous / as / He / movie / the / acted / first / his / in / character, / tramp". / in / silent

Extension Activity

Watch a silent film!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Find a silent film to watch (online or at the library).
- As you watch, think of some words to describe it.
- Share your experience with your partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I watch a silent film.

☐ ☐

I think about how to describe it.

☐ ☐

I share my experience with my partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- music hall (noun): a place to listen to and dance to music
e.g. Charlie Chaplin played in music halls.
- pantomime (noun): mime; acting without speaking
Example: Charlie Chaplin was famous for his pantomimes.
- cane (noun): a long stick used to help people walk
e.g. "The little tramp" used a cane.
- baggy (adjective): too large; oversized (for clothing)
Example: "The little tramp" wore baggy pants.
- world-famous (adjective): famous around the world
e.g. "The little tramp" was a world-famous character.
- symbol (noun): a thing that represents something else
Example: "The little tramp" became a symbol of the little man whose life was full of problems.
- audience (noun): a group of people who watch a show or performance
e.g. Audiences all over the world loved Charlie Chaplin.
- sensitivity (noun): care; thoughtfulness
e.g. Chaplin's sensitivity and humor made him a success.

Learning Points

The Present Perfect Tense vs. The Simple Past Tense

There are regular and irregular verbs in the Simple Past and the Present Perfect. Sometimes these verbs can be the same in these two tenses.

Examples:

The film we saw last night made me laugh. Actually, Chaplin's films have always made me laugh.

Have you heard of 'The Little Tramp'? I heard about it on TV many years ago.

However, sometimes these verbs are different in the Simple Past and the Present Perfect. Indeed, the two can be different from their basic forms.

Examples:

I have seen many of Chaplin's films. The last film I saw was hilarious!

I went to the movies with my friends. We have gone to the movies for ages.

Chaplin's character became the symbol of the little man whose life was full of problems. He has become a legendary actor.

You must practice irregular verbs in the Simple Past tense and in the Present Perfect so that you can become familiar with these verbs easily!

	Past tense form	Past participle form	Example
go	went	gone	I have gone to a silent movie.
see	saw	seen	She has seen a Chaplin film.
buy	bought	bought	He has bought a cane.
hear	heard	heard	They have never heard of Charlie Chaplin.

You can use the contracted form when speaking:

I have = I've

She has = She's

He has = He's

They have = They've

We have = We've

You have = You've

Find a list of verbs and their past participle forms. Memorize as many as you can.

