

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

How do I become famous? Please help!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Would you ever want to become famous? Why or why not?
- What does the word "famous" mean to you?

Can Do Statements

- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can describe the quality of an object or a person.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

What advice would you give to someone who wants to be famous?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Have you ever wondered how to become famous? Recently, I've had questions from my readers about this. I asked the editor-in-chief of Cambridge Life magazine what she thinks. Here are some points to consider:

1. Carefully decide what you want to be famous for. Remember there are many different types of "fame" - being an artist, politician, public service members (like doctors, firemen, etc.)
2. Practice being the best at what you do. Don't lazily post a video of you singing online until it sounds like something you would hear on the radio. Practice your craft - that is the only way people will listen!
3. Find a mentor. Having someone to show you your weakness and help you improve is the most intelligent approach to fame. Become better than them and then find another mentor. Keep the cycle going.
4. Be unique. You don't have to be the best looking person in the world. If you are different from other people, you will get attention from where it counts.

So, if you're thinking about becoming famous, maybe some of these tips will help. Good luck, readers!

Let's Practice!

What are the secrets to success?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Select and underline the correct word to correctly complete them. Use the completed sentences to model a conversation to practice your pronunciation with your partner. Switch roles.

1. There are many different types of favorite / famous / fame.
2. Practice being the worst / the best / the good at what you do.
3. The most intellect / intelligent / intelligence approach to fame is having a mentor.
4. If you are difference / differ / different from other people, you will get attention.
5. Keep the psycho / cycle / bicycle of improvement going.

Let's Practice!

What have you done to become famous?

Instructions: Proofread the sentence. Cross out the incorrect word. Write the correct sentences on the lines.

1. Recently, I've has many questions from my readers about how to become famous.
2. Has you ever wondered how to become famous?
3. I've always want to be a superstar.
4. He's never see a famous person.
5. She's post a video of her singing online.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Extension Activity

Give some tips to your friend who wants to be famous!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Imagine your friend wants to become famous.
- Think of 6 things you would tell them to help them.
- Write the 6 things down in complete sentences.
- Read them aloud to your partner. Do they agree?

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I think about 6 pieces of advice about becoming famous.

☐ ☐

I write the tips in complete sentences.

☐ ☐

I discuss my tips with my partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- recently (adverb): happening not long ago
e.g. I've had many questions from readers recently.
- public service (noun): government employment
e.g. Public service members can be famous.
- craft (noun): art; skill
e.g. It is important to practice your craft every day.
- mentor (noun): a person who gives advice and guidance e.g. Find a mentor to help you become famous.
- approach (noun): way; how you achieve something
e.g. Finding a mentor is one way to approach becoming successful.
- cycle (noun): a repeated series of events
e.g. Keep the cycle of success going.
- attention (noun): the state of being aware of something or someone e.g. You will get attention from where it counts.

Learning Points

The Present Perfect Tense vs. The Simple Past Tense

To identify the differences between the Simple Past and the Present Perfect, we can compare the following sentences.

Example:

- He has studied English for five years. (This means that five years ago he started to study English, and five years after, he continues studying English.)
- He studied English five years ago. (This means that he studied English five years ago, and he finished.)

Additionally, the Present Perfect needs the verb to have as well as the past participle of the verb.

Examples:

- Have you ever wondered? (The past participle for regular verbs is the same Simple Past "ed" form e.g. wonder – wondered.)
- I've had questions from my readers about this. (The past participle for irregular verbs may vary - e.g. have – had.)

Find a list of verbs and their past participle forms. Memorize as many as you can. For example:

Be	was / were	been
Become	became	become
Catch	caught	caught
Do	did	done
Fly	flew	flown
Keep	kept	kept
Put	put	put
Show	showed	shown
Throw	threw	thrown
Write	wrote	written

Learning Points

When you use the Present Perfect tense, you think about the past and present together. There is some connection between what happened in the past and now, but you use the Simple Past to talk about something that happened in the past and finished in the past.

Describing Personality and Behavior

You use adjectives and adverbs to describe a person's personality and behavior.

You describe personality when you say how a person usually is. It is true most of the time. You use the verb to be + adjectives.

You describe behavior when you say what a person does or how a person is at a particular time. You use the verb to be + adjectives or expressions like you were acting ... or you behaved + adverb.

Describing Personality	Describing Behavior
unique attention-grabbing offbeat larger-than-life eccentric imaginative	She was ... yesterday I/you/he behaved ... + adverb

Examples:

- If you want to be famous, you have to be unique!

