Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a social networking profile on the Internet?
- If not, how do you keep in touch with friends?

Can Do Statements

- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can describe the quality of an object or a person.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

What is Mark Zuckerberg's claim to fame?

* Someone's "claim to fame" is what made them famous.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

I've always loved social media. I've been on Facebook since high school! Do you know who Mark Zuckerberg is? What is his claim to fame? He and some friends started Facebook and have become multi-millionaires and superstar entrepreneurs!

Zuckerberg started the groundbreaking project at Harvard University. He was a genius computer programmer and was devoted to creating new computer software. People criticized the first program he developed at school because he used people's pictures without their permission. Zuckerberg apologized and began creating what was to become Facebook. His hard-working, ambitious approach to his work led him to develop the world's largest social network. He expertly and carefully developed his company and brand to what it is today.

Time magazine has named Zuckerberg one of the 100 wealthiest and most influential people in the world. A movie has been made about him and the rise of Facebook as the world-famous brand it is today. It is called The Social Network. Have you seen it?

Let's Practice!

Tell me about your experience with social networking*.

*"Social networking" is connecting with many people on the Internet.

Instructions: Draw a line to match the sentences in Column A and Column B. When you complete the sentences, read the sentences aloud with your partner. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Learning Points

The Present Perfect Tense vs. The Simple Past Tense

You use the Present Perfect tense to talk about a finished action or event that is connected to the present in some way.

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished action or event not necessarily connected to the present.

You can use the Present Perfect tense to talk about experience. When you use the Present Perfect tense, you think about the past and present together. There is some connection between what happened in the past and now.

For example:

I have learned English. = I learned English in the past and now I can speak English.

He has bought a painting. = He bought the painting in the past and now he has a painting.

We use have/has + the past participle of the verb in Present Perfect sentences.

You can use the contracted form when speaking:

I have = I've

She has = She's

He has = He's

They have = They've

We have = We've

You have = You've

Find a list of verbs and their past participle forms. Memorize as many as you can.

Examples:

• Tom: Have you ever had a social network account?

Ben: Yes, I have.

Ben: I've had mine for a long time.

Tom: Cool!
