

Let's Practice!

Dali was an attention-grabbing* man!

*"attention-grabbing" is a two-word adjective. You use a hyphen (-) to separate the words.

Instructions: Read the paragraph. Select and underline all the incorrect words in the paragraph. Correct the paragraph and practice your pronunciation reading it aloud.

Dali was one of the most eccentricest artists of modern times. He has created some of the mostest surreal works of art in the world. His piece called The Persistence of Memory is his most famouser and one of his paintings.

Let's Practice!

How would you describe the life of your favorite artist?

Instructions: Read the words in the box. Find them in the word search. Use the words to create sentences. Practice those sentences with a partner.

Words

1. Passionately
2. Surreal
3. Imaginatively
4. Eccentric
5. Oriental
6. Grandiose
7. Luxurious
8. Excessively

