Let's Start!

Writing Spot: There's always magic in the air on Broadway.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Have you dreamed of being a famous actor?
- How do you get into the industry?

Can Do Statements

- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can describe the process of applying for a specific job.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Do you dream of being an actor on stage? Listen to this article on how to get your big break.

* A "big break" means a great opportunity.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

It's tricky to get a job in the theater industry! Have you tried? Many dream about being the most famous actor on Broadway.

Unfortunately, competition is fierce for every position. Some say it is the one of the toughest industries to crack. Industry experts have often said that employers are rigorous about specific experience. They have recommended a number of things to consider if you are thinking about this kind of career. Here's some of the best advice I have read on how to quickly snag your dream acting job.

1. Act professionally and talk to people at events, and ask everyone for advice. Don't be shy!
2. See and read a lot of different plays. This broadens your understanding of the industry and indicates enthusiasm.
3. Work diligently or volunteer selflessly at the Front of House. This is a great way to meet others in the industry.
4. Get involved in any productions or events in your area. Many of the most well-known faces in the industry started in neighborhood productions.

Let's Practice!

Many people perform beautifully on Broadway. What do you need to do to work in this industry?

Instructions: Circle the words in each sentence that describe how something happens.

Learning Points

Present Perfect and Past Simple tense

You use the Present Perfect tense to talk about a finished action or event that is connected to the present in some way.

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about a finished action or event not necessarily connected to the present.

You can use the Present Perfect tense to talk about experience. When you use the Present Perfect tense, you think about the past and present together. There is some connection between what happened in the past and now.

Look at the chart about how to form the Present Perfect tense:

We use have/has + the past participle of the verb in Present Perfect sentences.

	Past tense form	Past participle form	Example
go	went	gone	I have gone to Japan.
see	saw	seen	She has seen a van Gogh painting.
buy	bought	bought	He has bought a van Gogh painting.
hear	heard	heard	They have never heard of van Gogh.

You can use the contracted form when speaking:

I have = I've

She has = She's

He has = He's

They have = They've

We have = We've

You have = You've

Find a list of verbs and their past participle forms. Memorize as many as you can.

Learning Points

Adverbs of Manner and Superlatives

You use adverbs of manner to describe how something is done.

Example: She walked slowly.

How did she walk? Slowly.

Many adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective:

Examples: sad - sadly, curious - curiously

Some adverbs are formed by adding -ally:

Example: comic - comically

The adverbs fast, hard, well and straight are exceptions.

Superlatives

You use a superlative adjective to express the highest degree of a quality.

You use a superlative adjective to talk about one thing or person in a group of things. You always use the with the superlative.

Superlatives can be regular.

the + adjective-est

the most adjective

or irregular

Adjective	Superlative
good	the best
bad	the worst
fine	the finest
quiet	the quietest
pretty	the prettiest
lovely	the loveliest
valuable	the most valuable
intelligent	the most intelligent
